Thank you for your interest in learning more about volunteering with Mountain View Seniors' Housing!

We are a non-profit organization, and a registered charity, operating seniors' lodges, seniors' self-contained apartments and subsidized family housing in Carstairs, Didsbury, Olds and Sundre.

We are committed to continually recognizing and supporting our volunteers as valued members of our Human Resources Team. Our mission is to "provide quality, safe, self-sustainable living and support services while promoting a healthy and independent lifestyle". This mission can only be met through the ongoing dedication and commitment of our volunteers.

Our volunteers enhance our resident's daily lives through the areas of: Recreation, Friendly Visiting, Gardening, Outings, Dining Room and Musical Entertainment. We are always interested in new ideas and can discuss any other interests or talents that you would like to share with our residents.

Becoming a volunteer with involves the following steps:

1. Return a completed Application to volunteer services;
2. Provide a clear Criminal Record and Vulnerable Sector Check;
3. Complete an interview to discuss our opportunities and your interests;
4. Provide two (2) personal references;
5. Accepting an offer of assignment and completing confidentiality paperwork;
6. Completing a general orientation and specific training; and
7. Get started!

I am here to ensure that your volunteer experience with us is successful. If you have any questions or concerns, please contact me at 403-556-2957 or via email at volunteer@mvsh.ca.

Sincerely,

Lesley Ludwar
Administrative Assistant of Care & Operations/Volunteer Coordinator
